

LETTER OF REFERENCE

CONCERNING VASSILEV & PARTNERS LAW FIRM'S ACTIVITY

Pixenity Ltd. is a studio for web development, design and advertisement, involved predominantly in servicing small and medium-sized local and international organizations. All of our projects are customized according to assignments placed by our clients, where the specific needs of their business are always adequately addressed and the marketing goals set are considered in detail.

Vassilev & Partners Law Firm has many times consulted our team on matters related to trade deals and conclusion of agreements on implementation of various projects, tax law, copyright and internet law, protection of personal data and application of GDPR, as well as any issues concerning the daily operations of our company. Attorney at law Vassilev and his team are at our service any time and we rely on their competent opinion. We highly appreciate their long-year experience, legal advices and we always seek for their support in case of concerns in our work with clients and partners. Based upon the trust built, detailed approach and personal attitude of the law firm's team by which they handle each particular case we feel confident in our day-to-day operations.

By issuing the present letter of reference we would like to recommend the law firm and its team as an experienced partner having proved its business ethics and professionalism.
